

Young Entertainer Awards

The Young Entertainer Awards is going Virtual this year.

“I support the Young Entertainer Awards and all those young people out there with big dreams.”
-Fergie (2016 YEA Lifetime Achievement Award Winner)

The YEA was originally scheduled to take place in April at the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion in Los Angeles, but the pandemic caused the ceremony to be postponed.

The 5th Annual YEA Ceremony will take place online on Sunday, October 25, from 2:00 PM-4:30 PM Pacific time, streaming live on Facebook and YouTube.

The Young Entertainer Awards Foundation was created by various members of the entertainment industry who wanted to provide a positive incentive for young entertainers to perfect their skills, to build a strong foundation of confidence that will benefit them, not only in their present acting career, but also in whatever path they wish to follow in their future, and to provide a scholarship to an individual or to another organization or institution assisting talented youth who might not otherwise be able to realize their dream.

The YEA recognizes actors, filmmakers, and musicians under the age of 21 in a range of categories including feature films, short films, writers, directors, television, stage, web-series, commercials, and voice overs.

Alitzah Wiener
Host

“The Young Entertainer Awards isn’t just an award show; it’s about creating a community. We couldn’t let 2020 slide by and cancel our in-person gala due to the pandemic without recognizing all the young entertainers and their work. Having grown up in show biz, I am a firm believer in lifting up the next generation.”

-Alitzah Wiener, aka Twinkle Time, is a Billboard-Charting
Children’s Musical Artist

Brad Perry
Host

Brad Perry is the host of AZTV's popular "Arizona Daily Mix" in Phoenix, Arizona.

Silver Bullet Productions
Recipient of the 5th Annual Young Entertainer
Scholarship Award

A central component of each YEA ceremony is the presentation of a scholarship in support of arts education. The recipient of this year's scholarship will be "Silver Bullet Productions" located in New Mexico, a non-profit organization that provides Native American youth with workshops that involve students in all aspects of filmmaking that reflect their culture and heritage.
